

The Center for Outreach in Alzheimer's, Aging and Community Health (COAACH) invites you to join us at our Inaugural Golf Tournament, Wednesday, August 1, 2018 at the Grandover Resort and Conference Center in Greensboro, North Carolina. Located in the midst of 1,500 acres of oaks, pine and dogwood covered hills; the courses provide a blaze of color and assure golfers they are in the Carolinas, America's heartland of golf.

The mission of COAACH (501c3) is to improve the health and well-being of communities by providing education, community empowerment, and evidence-based research in Alzheimer's disease and related conditions.

Please consider being a part of this inaugural event and pledge your sponsorship today. We are anticipating a highly successful and well-attended golf tournament, and have several opportunities for you to support this event.
